

Biography

Aymeric Pontvianne is senior adviser « economy and innovation » @CNIL. Project manager of CNIL's sandbox on digital health data, created in 2021, his responsibilities include economic regulatory analysis (business models, economics of privacy, links with competition issues etc). Graduate of the Ecole Nationale d'Administration, he holds a Master 2 in Economics and occupied various positions in European, international and financial matters within the French Treasury.